Complainant: Pensioner
Respondent: Employer
ROD Case No: 81-707 - January 6, 1987

Board of Trustees: Joseph P. Connors, Sr., Chairman; Paul R. Dean, Trustee; William B. Jordan, Trustee; William Miller, Trustee; Donald E. Pierce, Jr., Trustee.

Pursuant to Article IX of the United Mine Workers of America ("UMWA") 1950 Benefit Plan and Trust, and under the authority of an exemption granted by the United States Department of Labor, the Trustees have reviewed the facts and circumstances of this dispute concerning health benefits coverage for a pensioner under the terms of the Employer Benefit Plan.

Background Facts

The Complainant was notified by letter of September 20, 1983 that he was awarded a Deferred Vested pension, based on a total of 28 1/4 years of credited service, under the UMWA 1974 Pension Plan, effective February 1, 1983. The Complainant was advised to contact his last signatory employer, the Respondent, regarding his eligibility for health benefits coverage. The Complainant has stated that the Respondent has not provided his health benefits coverage since he retired in February 1983.

The Respondent was signatory to the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement ("Wage Agreement") of 1981, which expired on September 30, 1984. Information obtained by the Funds indicates that the Respondent last operated in February 1984. The Respondent did not sign the 1984 Wage Agreement.

The Complainant contends that the Respondent is responsible for his health benefits coverage as a Pensioner. In the alternative, the Complainant has asked that the 1974 Benefit Plan and Trust provide benefits.

Dispute

Whether the Respondent is responsible for providing health benefits to the Complainant as a 1974 Plan Pensioner.

Positions of the Parties

Position of the Complainant: The Respondent or the 1974 Benefit Plan and Trust is responsible for the provision of health benefits to the Complainant.

Position of the Respondent: The Respondent has not provided its position in this dispute.

Pertinent Provisions

Article XX(c)(3)(i) of the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement of 1981 provides:

(3)(i) Each signatory Employer shall establish and maintain an Employee benefit plan to provide, implemented through an insurance carrier(s), health and other non-pension benefits for its Employees covered by this Agreement as well as pensioners, under the 1974 Pension Plan and Trust, whose last signatory classified employment was with such Employer. The benefits provided by the Employer to its eligible Participants pursuant to such plans shall be guaranteed during the term of this Agreement by that Employer at levels set forth in such plans. Such plans shall also include that each signatory Employer continue to make the death benefit payments in pay status as of December 5, 1977, for deceased Employees and Pensioners under the 1974 Pension Plan whose last signatory classified employment was with such Employer, in the same manner and in the same amounts as previously provided for in the 1974 Benefit Plan and Trust. The plans established pursuant to this subsection are incorporated by reference and made a part of this Agreement, and the terms and conditions under which the health and other non-pension benefits will be provided under such plans are as to be set forth in such plans.

Article I(1),(2) and (5) of the Employer Benefit Plan provide:

ARTICLE I. Definitions

The following terms shall have the meanings herein set forth:

- (1) "Employer" means (Employer's Name)
- (2) "Wage Agreement" means the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement of 1981, as amended from time to time and any successor agreement.
- (5) "Pensioner" shall mean any person who is receiving a pension, other than (i) a deferred vested pension based on less than 20 years of credited service, or (ii) pension based in whole or in part on years of service credited under the terms of Article II G of the 1974 Pension Plan, or any corresponding paragraph of any successor thereto, under the 1974 Pension Plan (or any successor thereto), whose last classified signatory employment was with the Employer, subject to the provisions of Article II B of this Plan.

Article II. B. (1) of the Employer Benefit Plan provides:

B. Pensioners

Health benefits and life insurance under Article III hereof shall be provided to Pensioners as follows:

(1) Any Pensioner who is not again employed in classified signatory employment subsequent to

(a) such Pensioner's initial date of retirement under the 1974 Pension Plan, and

(b) June 7, 1981, shall be eligible for coverage as a Pensioner under, and subject to all other provisions of this Plan. Notwithstanding (i) and (ii) of the definition of Pensioner in Article 1(5) of this Plan, any such Pensioner who was eligible for benefits under the 1974 Benefit Plan as a Pensioner on December 5, 1977, shall be eligible for such benefits, subject to all other provisions of this Plan.

Discussion

Article XX (c)(3)(i) of the 1981 Wage Agreement requires a signatory employer to establish and maintain an Employer Benefit Plan to provide health and other non-pension benefits for its pensioners whose last classified employment was with such employer. Article II B. (1) of the Employer Benefit Plan provides health benefits to pensioners, other than those receiving a Deferred Vested pension based upon less than 20 years of credited service. Inasmuch as the Complainant's last signatory classified employment was with the Respondent and his Deferred Vested pension is based upon 28 1/4 years of credited service, the Respondent is responsible for the Complainant's health benefits coverage during the term of the 1981 Wage Agreement.

The issue is now whether the Respondent is contractually obligated to provide such coverage beyond the expiration of the 1981 Wage Agreement when the Respondent did not sign the 1984 Wage Agreement. The United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit in Dist. 29, United Mine Workers of America et al. v. Royal Coal Co., 768 F. 2d 588, 592 (4th Cir. 1985] and Dist. 17 United Mine Workers of America, et al. v. Allied Corp., etc., 765 F. 2d 412, 417 (4th Cir. 1985) (en banc), has ruled that an Employer's contractual obligation to provide health benefits to its pensioners does not extend beyond the expiration of the Wage Agreement.

The Complainant has also requested in the alternative that coverage be provided under the 1974 Benefit Plan and Trust. Under that Plan, a beneficiary is entitled to coverage only if it is determined that the beneficiary's last Employer is "no longer in business." Such determination is made by the Trustees under established procedures separate from the ROD procedure.

The Respondent is responsible for providing health benefits to the Complainant from February 1, 1983 through the expiration of the 1981 Wage Agreement on September 30, 1984. Given the controlling language of the applicable Wage Agreement and Plan documents and in light of the Fourth Circuit's recent decisions, the Respondent is not responsible for providing health benefits to the Complainant following the expiration of the 1981 Wage Agreement.
