Complainants: Employees
Respondent: Employer
ROD Case No: 88-197 - February 28, 1990

Board of Trustees: Joseph P. Connors, Sr., Chairman; Paul R. Dean, Trustee; William Miller, Trustee; Donald E. Pierce, Jr., Trustee; Thomas H. Saggau, Trustee.

Pursuant to Article IX of the United Mine Workers of America ("UMWA") 1950 Benefit Plan and Trust, and under the authority of an exemption granted by the United States Department of Labor, the Trustees have reviewed the facts and circumstances of this dispute concerning the provision of health benefits coverage for Employees under the terms of the Employer Benefit Plan.

Background Facts

The Complainants are employed in classified positions by the Respondent, a signatory employer. The representative for the Complainants states that beginning June 21, 1989 there was a work stoppage at the Respondent's operations. From June 24, 1989 through July 8, 1989, the Complainants observed their regularly scheduled vacation period.

By letter dated June 28, 1989 the Respondent requested that the Complainants return to work on their next scheduled shift, and the Complainants were informed that refusal to return to work by July 10, 1989 would result in the suspension of their health benefits. The Respondent notified the Complainants by a separate letter dated June 28, 1989 that, if their health benefits coverage were terminated, they could choose to continue such coverage at their expense for a period of up to 18 months under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA). The Complainants observed a memorial period declared by the UMWA from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989. The Respondent notified the Complainants by letter dated July 11, 1989 that because they had not returned to work, their employer-provided health benefits coverage was terminated effective July 10, 1989. Health benefits coverage was reinstated when the Complainants returned to work on July 15, 1989.

The Complainants contend that the Respondent should pay the medical expenses incurred by them and their dependents from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989 because the Employer Benefit Plan does not provide for the cancellation of health benefits coverage during a work stoppage or a memorial period.

Dispute

Whether the Respondent is responsible for providing health benefits coverage for the Complainants during the memorial period observed from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989.

Positions of the Parties

Position of the Complainants: The Employer Benefit Plan does not provide for the cancellation of health benefits coverage during a work stoppage or a memorial period; therefore, the Respondent is required to pay the medical expenses incurred by the Complainants and their eligible dependents during the period from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989.

Position of the Respondent: The memorial period was declared while an unauthorized work stoppage was in progress. The Respondent is not required to provide health benefits coverage for the Complainants during that period because the Complainants were not considered "active" or "working miners" and the 1988 Wage Agreement was in a state of suspension until the Complainants returned to work. The Respondent also contends that since the Plan provides for the termination of coverage during an approved leave of absence, it is reasonable to terminate coverage during an unapproved leave of absence such as the work stoppage in this case.

Pertinent Provisions

Article XX Section (c)(3)(i) of the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement of 1988 provides in pertinent part:

(3)(i) Each signatory Employer shall establish and maintain an Employee benefit plan to provide, implemented through an insurance carrier(s), health and other non-pension benefits for its Employees covered by this Agreement as well as pensioners, under the 1974 Pension Plan and Trust, whose last signatory classified employment was with such Employer. The benefits provided by the Employer to its eligible Participants pursuant to such plans shall be guaranteed during the term of this Agreement by that Employer at levels set forth in such plans.... The plans established pursuant to this subsection are incorporated by reference and made a part of this Agreement, and the terms and conditions under which the health and other non-pension benefits will be provided under such plans are as to be set forth in such plans.

Article XXII Section (j) of the National Bituminous Coal Wage Agreement of 1988 provides:

(j) Memorial Periods

The International Union, United Mine Workers of America, may designate memorial periods not exceeding a total of ten (10) days during the term of this Agreement at any mine or operation provided it shall give reasonable notice to the Employer.

- (2) is on layoff or disabled from the Employer and had continuing eligibility as of the effective date of the Wage Agreement for coverage under the 1984 Employer's Benefit Plan ("prior Plan") as a laid-off or disabled employee. Coverage for such laid-off or disabled Employees shall not continue beyond the date when they would no longer have been eligible for such coverage under the provisions of the prior Plan.
- (3) Except as provided in paragraph (2) above, any Employee of the Employer who is not actively at work* for the Employer on the effective date of the Wage Agreement will not be eligible for coverage under the Plan until he returns to active employment with the Employer.

(e) Quit or Discharge

If an Employee quits (for any reason) or is discharged, health, life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance coverage will terminate as of the date last worked....

Discussion

The Complainants contend that the Respondent is required to provide health benefits coverage during the period from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989, when they were observing a memorial period while a work stoppage was in progress. The Respondent contends that the memorial period was not properly taken because the Wage Agreement was not in effect because of the work stoppage. The Trustees have addressed the issue of an Employer's obligation under the Employer Benefit Plan to provide coverage for Employees during a work stoppage in ROD 88-181 (copy enclosed herein). In their decision in ROD 88-181, which absent any finding to the contrary, assumed that the Wage Agreement was in full force and effect, the Trustees concluded that under the Employer Benefit Plan, the Employer was responsible for providing health benefits coverage for its Employees during the work stoppage. Thus, while it should be noted that there is no provision in the Plan for suspending benefits during a memorial period, this issue is not reached in this dispute. Accordingly, the Respondent is responsible for providing health benefits coverage for the Complainants during the period from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989.

Based upon the provisions of and consistent with the terms of the Employer Benefit Plan, the Respondent is responsible for providing health benefits coverage to the Complainants and their eligible dependents during the period from July 10, 1989 through July 14, 1989.
